

Ev'ry Heart – words by Elsie M. MacGregor, music by Walter Rolfe

Intro

F Gm G F

F C F C
Ev'ry heart has its sadness

F C F
Ev'ry heart has its woes

Gm F
But in the end comes gladness

G C
No matter where you go

G F
Ev'ry heart has its heartaches

G F
Ev'ry heart has its friends

Gm C
And, through countless ages

G C
Proven true till the end.

F C F C
Ev'ry heart has its sorrows

F C F
Ev'ry heart has its foes

G F
But, of all the deep sorrow

Gm F
Is rejected love you know

F C F C
Ev'ry heart has its blues,

F C F
Ev'ry heart has its trust,

Gm F
Because some friends are untrue

G C
False to you and unjust.

G F
Ev'ry heart has its songs,

G F
Ev'ry heart has its smiles

G F
And, though ev'rything goes wrong,

G C
Life is still worth the while.

F C F C
Ev'ry heart has its whims,

F C F
Ev'ry heart has its guile

G F
Then true love comes again,

Gm C F
Life is still worth the while
