

Jeffersonian Democrat,

BROOKVILLE, PA.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

Thursday, October 22, 1903.

Our Correspondents.

Corsica.

A report of the Cochran-Carrier wedding at Summerville, to which Kodak has a special invitation, will be given next week. It came off on Wednesday of this week.—A ten-days meeting will begin in the Summerville Presbyterian church on Thursday night of this week, Oct. 22d. Rev. Charles A. Clark, the efficient and popular pastor of the Punxsutawney church, will preach next week. The pastor will preach this week and on Sabbath night, the 25th.—Sam. Carrier and family, this side of Summerville, have moved to the state of Washington. Mrs. Ellen Anderson and her daughter Rose have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Carrier. They are mother and sister of Prof. S. G. Anderson, and are good people who come from Frampton, Pa. They are cordially welcomed to this vicinity.—Glad to have a letter from the Millers at Tarentum last week, and glad to know they are identifying themselves with the Presbyterian church of that place. Last week Pisgah church dismissed three members of the Darr family to the Presbyterian church of Duquesne. When a church is obliged to give up its members, it is a pleasure to send such good material to help other churches.—R. R. and Jean M. Britt were visitors last Friday and Saturday at the home of their Aunt and Uncle Boyd, near Limestone. Jean claims he shot a bird as big as a turkey while it was flying, and that it fell, but he could not find it when he went to look for it.—While going