

Rites Held Today For J. M. Britt

NORWALK, Sept. 30 — J. M. Britt, 54, of Norwalk, was fatally injured in an accident at Wellington while working as a state highway concrete inspector with a bridge construction crew.

The men were pouring a concrete deck for the bridge and a large concrete bucket broke loose from a crane and struck him. Death occurred in Allen Hospital at Oberlin. Mr. Britt suffered inwith you in a jiffy." and shot out towards the dressing rooms.

"Don't do that!" Imhof cried juries about the head and body and one of his legs was broken in four places. A. J. Baltes, Norwalk contractor, is improving a part of Route 18 and the bridge is included in the project.

Mr. Britt is survived by a brother, R. R. Britt of Columbus, and a sister, Anna F. Britt of Limestone, Pa. For the last 15 years he lived at Norwalk and Lorain. In the latter city, he was a member of the American Legion. He also was a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Services were conducted by the American Legion at Oberlin today. Burial will be in Corsica, Pa.