

D. A. R. Prize Contest.

The essay contest for which prizes are annually offered by the Brookville Chapter, D. A. R., was won this year by two pupils of the Corsica schools. The first prize going to R. R. Britt, and the second to Jean M. Britt. The judges were C. C. Benscoter, Mrs. J. B. Stewart, and Mrs. R. B. Teitrick. The essays submitted to them were designated by numbers only, the authors being unknown until after the decision. These contests are open to all the high schools in Jefferson county.
